Charged With House-Breaking—A Church Robbed—Religious Notes—A Painful Accident—Hard to Get a Foundation—Briefs.

PETERSBURG, VA., December 9.—(Special)—William Vaughan (colored), employed at the S. W. Venable tobacco factory, while at work this morning was stricken down by an attack of heart-disease, and died in a few minutes.

Another sudden death occurred this morning on Gill street, death being caused, as is supposed, by heart affection. Colin Wilkins (colored) was the victim of the deceased.

Sergeant John J. Donahue, one of the most efficient officers of our police corps, is quite sick at his residence, on Market street. He was taken sick yesterday, and is threatened with a severe case of pneumonia.

K. Redd, a white man, who says his home is in Norfolk, where he represents a firm, has a wife and several children, was arrested here on charges of larceny. The charges against him are that of breaking into the blacksmith-shop of George W. Taylor, on Commerce street, on Wednesday night and stealing therefrom a number of tools. These tools were taken from different parties, to whom it is alleged, the accused sold them for a small sum. Redd has apparently been drinking quite freely, and it is supposed the money derived from the sale of the tools was applied to the purchase of rum.

The disciples' church, in the western portion of the city, was broken into a night or two ago and pretty thoroughly plundered. The communion-table cloth and other articles were stolen.

Captain William Lassiter, First United States Artillery, stationed at West Point, arrived in the city yesterday, on his way to visit his brother, Charles T. Lassiter, Commonwealth's Attorney, who has been very ill for some days.

Mr. Jacoby, the contractor for paving a street with vitrified brick from Newmarket to Oak streets, has about completed his work. He is under bond, per contract, to keep the street in good order and repair for the period of five years. The work has not yet been turned over to or accepted by the city.

It is reported that, in consequence of the great difficulty encountered in laying the foundation for the first pier, near the southern bank of the Appomattox river, on the bridge of the Richmond, Petersburg and Carolina railroad, further efforts in that direction will be temporarily abandoned, and a temporary trestle will be erected. The water is very deep at this point, the current very rapid, and the end of the river wide.

The sales of loose tobacco at the several warehouses in this city this week averaged $12.55 per pound. It has been a very busy week in the tobacco trade, and a large amount of money was paid to the farmers.

During the present week the Clerk of the Hustings Court decided ten cases of property in this city to U. T. Isenauer, secured by him under the "land grabber" act.

Rev. Dr. McBride, of Lexington, Va., who has been conducting a mission at Grace church all the week, will conclude his services on Sunday night. Tomorrow afternoon he will preach to men. Dr. McBride is an able and convincing preacher, and has delighted all who heard him.

A former Petersburg, now a petty officer on board one of the United States warships in the Philippines, writes to a friend here that there are only two native-born Americans among the petty officers of the ship, the others being Germans and Danes, and that there are only fifteen natives in a crew of 125, the others being foreigners. He says the climate is not fit for a white man, and American mechanics and laborers can never make a living there, on account of the coolies, Japs, and Chinese, who are even now employed as skilled and unskilled laborers.

The lack of facilities for prompt shipment has caused the collection of a great quantity of lumber at City Point and on the wharves in this city.

TO CONFEDERATES.

LOUISVILLE REUNION TO BE HELD

MAY 30, 31, AND JUNE 1, 2, AND 3.

BIRTHDAY OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Religious Services in Memory of Mr. Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," and Departed Confederate Soldiers and Commanders.

NEW ORLEANS, December 9.—Adjutant-General Mooreman, by direction of General John B. Gordon, commanding the United Confederate Veterans, to-day issued the following:

"The General commanding announces that under the custom established by the association, leaving the date of the next annual meeting and reunion, which is to be held in the city of Louisville, Ky., to the General commanding and the department commanders, by unanimous agreement, the reunion will be held upon the following dates: May 30 and 31 and June 1, 2, and 3, 1900—Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, respectively, which dates have been submitted to 'our host' and acquiesced in.

"On account of the rapid growth of the association, and the immense accumulation of important business which will be presented to the delegates for their consideration, and which will demand your attention at the coming session, four days will be given for the business meetings, unless such matters are sooner disposed of, and as the grand commonwealth of Kentucky gave Mr. Jefferson Davis to the Confederacy, and his Sunday, June 3, 1900, will be the ninety-second anniversary of his birth, that day will be specially set apart for religious and memorial services to be held in memory of Mr. Davis, and of thousands of our peerless private soldiers and illustrious commanders and leaders of the Confederacy, who have gone to join the spectral armies encamped among the stars.

"With pride the General commanding also announces that 1,300 camps have now joined the association, and that applications for organization papers have been received at this headquarters for about 200 more.

"He urges veterans everywhere to send to these headquarters for organization papers for headquarters, so as to assist in carrying out its benevolent, praiseworthy, and patriotic objects."

Mr. Farmer, who is a son of Mr. H. N. Farmer, was shot by his close friend, Mr. Frank Montgomery, while both were out to kill a rabbit. Mr. Farmer's face and arms were peppered with No. 7 shot. His eyes are injured also, but it is hoped strongly that his sight will be saved.

Dr. Edward J. Mosely is attending the young man, who was brought home Friday evening.
